Dear Parent/Guardian:

I am pleased to announce MSAD59 will be hosting Detective Joe Royle from the Maine State Police Computer Crimes Unit to speak with parents on Tuesday, November 9, 2021, at 6:00PM in the Auditorium at Madison Junior High about Cyberbullying and other online risks for your children.

Being “online” has become a way of life - whether it is shopping, FaceTime, Snapchat, video games, or many other reasons, but with that “way of life” come risks that most of us are really not aware exist. We assume our children are making good choices, and the “friends” they have made online are safe – Detective Royle will share experiences that might leave you speechless.

Please mark November 9th on your calendars and join the Administrative team and me to listen to Detective Royle’s presentation. I promise you will not be disappointed.

Regards,

Bonnie C. Levesque
Superintendent of Schools
MSAD59

Masks will be required.
