

Individual Members

School directors have legal authority only during regular and special meetings. Their participation in meetings, therefore, is the basic manner in which they fulfill their high office. The method of participation is discussion, deliberation, debater and voting. Administrative action for members is legally not appropriate. All members, including the chairman, are expected to participate fully in deliberation and voting.

Bylaws Adopted by the Board: 12/75