

Research, Evaluation, Planning

The board expects the superintendent of schools to concern Himself/Herself with long-term planning to guide the board in policy development and effective decision-making. The board recognizes that planning must be supported by research and the evaluation of its findings.

The superintendent shall establish safeguards to prevent the research function from hampering the educational process.

Policy Adopted: 12/75

Policy Reviewed: 9/1/88