

Grouping

The high school principal, junior high school principal, and the elementary principal, with the assistance of the teachers, shall be responsible for grouping pupils so that they may more nearly have the opportunity to reach their maximum potential.

They shall consider the strengths and weaknesses of their teachers in making teaching assignments where grouping gives varying characteristics to classes.

Plans for grouping within schools shall be approved by the superintendent.

Policy Adopted: 12/75

Policy Adopted: 4/88