

Safety: Personal and Possessions

The board is responsible for proper attention to the safety of pupils.

The superintendent is responsible for recommending to the board plans for the safety of pupils.

Principals, teachers or bus drivers to whom they may delegate their authority are responsible for the safety of pupils during the time pupils are en route to or returning from school, and while they are on the school premises.

It is the responsibility of the principal and teachers to arrange for adequate supervision of playgrounds at all times. Special attention should be given to the prevention of accidents and to the development of habits of good citizenship.

The principal in cooperation with the police shall provide for the safety of pupils. The organization of school patrols shall be encouraged as a valuable aid to safety on and around school grounds.
