Here are some websites that are great resources for free musical learning!

Digital Concerts

The above link should bring you to the Berlin Philharmonic site. They are offering free access to their digital concert hall with no obligation for 30 days. Not only can people enjoy their concerts, but other great informational videos as well.

Khan Academy

The above site requires the creation of an account but has simple age appropriate lessons for music theory (among many other valuable subject areas) Try checking out the instruments of the orchestra, they are informative and interesting!

5 Short videos about sound There are 5 short videos that explain sound and instruments.

Making Music Fun

Here articles can be found on composers (4th graders this is the information for your projects), instruments, and music theory.

Chrome Music Lab

The above link is a great site for experimenting with music!

Mrs. Snowman Reading Moose OfCourse

Here's a video of my daughter and I making music, I'd love to hear any music that you are making! Feel free to email me and I'll get back to you!!
